Accreditation of an institution by the Commission on Higher Education indicates that an institution meets or exceeds criteria for the assessment of institutional quality periodically applied through a peer group review process. An accredited college or university is one which has available the necessary resources to achieve its stated purposes through appropriate educational programs, is substantially doing so, and gives reasonable evidence that it will continue to do so in the future.

Wilmington University programs have been approved for training of eligible veterans and international students.

N

It is the policy of Wilmington University not to discriminate on the basis of sex, disability, race, age, color, religion, national or ethnic origin, marital status, or sexual or affectional preference in its educational programs, admission policies, employment practices, financial aid, or other school-administered programs.

This policy is enforced by federal law under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

Wilmington University actively supports the rights of students with disabilities to have equal access to education. Wilmington University makes every reasonable effort to accommodate the needs of students with disabilities.

Students who have a disability are asked to notify the Office of the Vice President of Student Affairs as soon as possible and prior to registration. Early notification prevents delay in initiation of services and ensures the student access to educational activities.

Students with disabilities that affect learning, including but not limited to Learning Disabilities (LD) and Attention Deficit Disorder (ADD), are required to provide the office with recent documentation from diagnostic testing. The Office of Student Accessibility Services (SAS) is located in the Student Center, Room 100. For more information, please contact the Office of Student Accessibility Services at (302) 637-1000 or visit our website at www.wilmington.edu/sas.

Wilmington University reserves the right to change with the Program Coordinator in whose program the course resides. This communication must occur within 60 days from the time the grade is posted in the Registrar's Office.

If the matter is not resolved with the Program Coordinator, the student should submit a letter to the appropriate Academic Dean. This letter should include the specific reason(s) for setting aside the decision of the Program Coordinator.

Appeal of a Final Course Grade

A student who seeks to appeal a final grade in a course should first speak with the faculty member concerned. If the student wishes to proceed further with the appeal, the student should formally communicate with the Program Coordinator in whose program the course resides. This communication must occur within 60 days from the time the grade is posted in the Registrar's Office.

If the matter is not resolved with the Program Coordinator, the student should submit a letter to the appropriate Academic Dean. This letter should include the specific reason(s) for setting aside the decision of the Program Coordinator.

Request for a Hearing— Final Course Grade or Academic Complaint

If there is a question about the decision of the Academic Dean regarding the appeal of a final course grade or an academic complaint, a student can register a grievance in writing to the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs to determine if the matter warrants a hearing before the Academic Review Committee. This letter should include the specific reason(s) for taking the student's grievance beyond the Academic Dean. If the Assistant Vice President determines that a hearing is appropriate, the Academic Review Committee will be convened and a copy of the student's letter will be forwarded to the committee. Should the Assistant Vice President determine that a hearing is not warranted, the student will be so informed within 10 business days. The decision of the Academic Review Committee or the Assistant Vice President will be final.

Regular and prompt class attendance is an essential part of the educational experience. Wilmington University expects students to exercise good judgment regarding attendance and absences. Students accept full responsibility for ensuring that work does not suffer from absences. All students are expected to attend every scheduled meeting of each class on time. Exceptions may be made for Wilmington University-sponsored or work-related activities, illness, or valid emergencies.

Please note that some academic colleges have additional attendance requirements beyond those specified in this section. In accordance with veterans' regulations, attendance must be taken for all enrolled veterans in each class learning session.

University (See the Program Coordinator for specific course requirements.), but the completion of the two degrees does not have to occur simultaneously. As long as a student earns the minimum additional credits and the specific program requirements are met, the second degree may be completed at a later time.

E A

Students who wish to audit a specific course for no credit may do so by seeking permission of an academic advisor or site director. Students may then follow established registration procedures, clearly stating which courses they wish to audit. Course auditors pay the same tuition as non-auditors and may participate fully in classroom activities. They are not required to take examinations or complete class assignments. Course auditors receive a grade of "AU" (audit) that does not affect grade point average (GPA).

G /A P

Full-time Graduate Students

Nine credit hours per semester constitute a full-time graduate course load. For international graduate students, Master of Science in Nursing students, Doctor of Education, and Doctor of Business Administration students, 18 credit hours over a one-year period constitute full-time status. A course load in excess of 14 credit hours per semester requires the approval of the Academic Dean or Program Coordinator. Students who are denied approval to take a course load in excess of 14 credits per semester may appeal in writing to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Grade Point Average (GPA)

A student's grade point average (GPA) is obtained by dividing the total number of quality points earned by the total number of credit hours attempted, excluding courses in which the grade of "S" is recorded. For transfer students, credits earned include transfer credits; however, the cumulative grade point average is computed only on courses attempted at Wilmington University.

Grades recorded with parentheses indicate prerequisite, post-graduate, and non-credit courses. These credit hours and the corresponding quality points are excluded in the GPA calculation. The grades of "F", "FA" and "NA" are used in computing the grade point average. Courses with grades of "F", "FA" and "NA" are counted in attempted credit hours and receive zero quality points.

Grading System

Wilmington University utilizes a plus/minus grading system in assessing student achievement. Table 1 specifies grades that are used at the graduate level and the corresponding quality points awarded for each credit hour in which students are enrolled.

"I" Grade for Incomplete Work

An "incomplete" may be granted with prior approval of the course instructor. If granted, the student must complete course work within the time limitation determined by the instructor up to a maximum of 60 days following the end of the course. After 60 days, incomplete ("I") grades are converted to a grade of "F" unless the student arranges for an additional extension and the instructor notifies the Office of the Registrar before the initial 60-day period expires.

Pass/Fail Option

Students may gain approval from their Program Coordinator to enroll in selected courses on a pass/fail basis. This option is limited to two courses beyond the 15 credit hours permitted for internships. Students will then follow established registration procedures, clearly stating at the time of registration which course is selected as the pass/fail option. Course work is graded "S" (Satisfactory) or "U" (Unsatisfactory).

P A S

A graduate student is expected to make satisfactory academic progress toward a degree. Failure to achieve this progress may result in academic probation and even suspension from the University, as determined by the Academic Review Committee.

e following leads to academic probation:

1. A cumulative GPA of less than 3.0
2. An "F", "FA" or "NA" grade in a credit course

The Academic Review Committee will meet after each block (7 weeks) to review academic records. For a first occurrence, a student with a cumulative GPA below 3.0 will be placed on academic probation. A second occurrence of unsatisfactory academic progress may result in continued probation, academic suspension, or permanent suspension from the institution.

A graduate student placed on probation will be called in for advisement by the appropriate Program Coordinator. While on probation, a student may enroll in no more than three courses per semester with no more than two courses in any one block; it is strongly recommended that a student enroll in no more than one course per block.

A suspended student may be reinstated on probationary status by presenting a written appeal to the Academic Review Committee chairperson. A suspended student must wait one full semester after the suspension was issued before submitting an appeal to the Academic Review Committee Chairperson.

International Students

Wilmington University welcomes international students who wish to enroll. International students must satisfy general requirements and admissions procedures and have the necessary immigration documents allowing them to pursue a course of study in the United States.

If an international student has not previously attended an accredited English-speaking college or university, he/she will be required to take the TOEFL and obtain a score of at least 61 on the Internet-based test (IBT) or 173 on the computer-based test (CBT), minimum IELTS score of Band 5.5 or greater, or the successful completion of 12 credit hours from an accredited American institution.

Transfer Credit Policy

Up to six credit hours of graduate study from a fully accredited graduate unit te ~~6000~~ credit

must be completed by the Friday following the first class meeting. Failure to withdraw before the withdrawal deadline results in a grade of “FA” or “NA.”

Repeating a Course

Whenever a course is repeated, the new grade is recorded on the transcript, as well as the previous grade earned. For the purpose of grade point average (GPA) computation, the new grade will be used so that only one grade is calculated into the cumulative GPA. The most recent semester in which a student has taken the repeated course will be the course grade that is calculated into the grade point average. All grades will remain on the transcript. A successfully completed course can be applied to graduation requirements only once.

A C M

Wilmington University grants academic credit for work completed through six alternative credit sources. These sources are in addition to transfer credit which may be granted for work completed at another academic institution. A brief description follows. Additional information may be found on the University website, the Academic Program Guide or from Academic Advising.

Challenge by Examination

Challenge by examination measures graduate-level knowledge through an examination process. Challenge by examination is limited to graduate prerequisites. Students interested in challenge by examination must register in advance for the specific course and, upon payment of the specified fee, will receive notification of prearranged date, time, and place of examination. Results of the examination will be available to the student no later than one week prior to registration for the next block.

Directed Study

Directed study is available only under extenuating circumstances for students who are approved by their Academic Dean or Program Coordinator one month prior to the semester registration period in which the directed study is to be conducted. A maximum of 6 credits may be earned through the directed study format and may be used towards residency credits.

Extra-Institutional Course Assessment (ECA)

The University recognizes that college-level learning takes place both in and out of the classroom. A process of reviewing corporate training programs and other formal training/courses offered by non-accredited institutions/entities has been implemented to determine if college-level learning is present and to determine what credit, if any, should be awarded for the prior learning.

Graduate level ECA credit often requires independent study, original research, critical analysis, or the professional application of the specialized knowledge within the discipline.

Independent Study

Students desiring to study areas of knowledge outside of disciplines available through regular course work must secure written permission from the appropriate Academic Dean or Program Coordinator one month (minimum) prior to the semester's registration period in which the independent study is to be conducted. Tuition and fees for independent study are the same as those for standard courses. Independent study is graded on a pass/fail basis. A maximum of six (6) credits may be earned through the independent study process.

G

Students must satisfy degree and course requirements as outlined in the catalog in effect at the time of initial enrollment as a degree candidate. Once students interrupt their program for one year or more, it will be necessary to satisfy the degree requirements as outlined in the University catalog or published curriculum in effect during the time following the student's readmission as a degree candidate.

Students planning to graduate in January must complete

2. Proof of Language Proficiency. Minimum TOEFL scores of 61 on the Internet-based test (IBT) or 173 on the computer-based test (CBT), minimum IELTS score of Band 5.5 or greater, or the successful completion of 12 credit hours that shows English-related coursework

FINANCIAL AID

Financial aid is available to those who qualify. If educational expenses are greater than the family's ability to pay, as determined by a Congressionally-defined formula, a student is considered to be in need of financial assistance. The primary responsibility for financing a college education rests with students, and federal financial aid is provided to supplement the total family contribution and is awarded on the basis of demonstrated financial need.

F F F A G S

Federal Student Loans

Federal Direct Student Subsidized Loan. This loan is based on need. The federal government pays the interest on the loan from the date of first disbursement until the student goes into repayment, which is six months after graduating, withdrawing from college, OR enrolling for less than six credits.

Federal Direct Student Unsubsidized Loan. This loan is NOT based on need and the student is responsible for paying the interest on the loan from the date of the first disbursement. Students can elect to make quarterly interest payments or have the interest capitalized (added back to the principal) until they enter repayment. Like the subsidized loan, the loan goes into repayment six months after graduating, withdrawing from college, OR enrolling for less than six credits.

Federal financial aid provides assistance with paying for: tuition and fees, books and supplies, transportation costs, modest living expenses, and dependency expenses. This assistance is not meant to provide all living expenses. Rather, the funds are available to provide some supplemental living expenses as well as pay college costs. Detailed information on these programs

- Federal Direct Stafford Subsidized Loan. This loan is based on need. The federal government pays the interest on the loan from date of first disbursement until the student goes into repayment, which is six months after graduating OR withdrawing from University, or dropping below six credits in enrollment.
- Federal Direct Stafford Unsubsidized Loan. This loan

In addition to GPA standards, students must progress at a 75% completion rate. This also includes all withdraws and repeated classes, each one counts once.

(example: English 101 is taken and student withdraws, student takes the class again and fails, then the student takes the class and passes, for federal financial aid purposes this equals attempted 9 credits and passed 3 credits). That is, on a cumulative basis, students must successfully complete 75% of the credits attempted. Successful completion is defined as earning an "A", "B", or "C" in a course. Students who fall below the 75% rate will be placed on financial aid probation for a term and will remain eligible for aid if the student signs an academic contract, which details the academic requirements the student is expected to meet. Prior to registering for a subsequent term, students on academic contracts must meet with their respective Financial Aid Officers for an academic review of the most recent term. Students who do not adhere to the academic contract may lose financial aid eligibility or may

The Library supports the mission of Wilmington University through its collections, services, facilities and programming. Through a combination of innovative technology and resources, the Robert C. & Dorothy M. Peoples Library serves students, faculty and staff regardless of program or location. Each site offers group study rooms, free wireless access, multimedia viewing stations, and a myriad of computers for research and Internet access. A team of professional librarians and dedicated staff are available to answer research questions, recommend resources, assist with formulation of search strategies, and instruct in the use of electronic and print resources for students at all sites. Students registered in Distance Programs or at Dover Air Force Base, Dover, Georgetown and New Jersey sites may request books-by-mail at no charge from the main campus site in New Castle by completing the online request form or by calling our toll-free phone line.

Located in the Robert C. and Dorothy M. Peoples Library Building on the New Castle campus, the main library holds a collection of over 192,000 volumes and more than 450 periodicals in print and microfilm. The library features state-of-the-art technologies with resources accessible through the Internet, including online catalog, e-books, and electronic databases providing access to reference materials and thousands of full-text journals.

There are library resource rooms available for students in Dover and at the Wilson Graduate Center. The library resource rooms provide Internet access to WebCat, e-books, and electronic databases as well as librarian support for reference, interlibrary loan, individual instruction, and assistance with using resources. Students at Georgetown and Rehoboth Beach may use the Stephen J. Betze Library at Delaware Technical & Community College Southern Campus. In addition, students may obtain borrowing privileges at 41 regional libraries that are members of the Tri-State College Library Consortium. Interlibrary loans from academic libraries across the country expand access to

The Honors Program allows Wilmington University undergraduates majoring in most of the College of Business programs to earn their Bachelor of Science degree and their MBA or MSM degree in just five years. The program is designed for students who have demonstrated academic ability and the desire to begin their professional career with all of the higher educational credentials required for success in their chosen profession. Students from the following undergraduate majors may be eligible for the Honors Program: Accounting, Business Management, Finance, Human Resources, Marketing, Organizational Management, and Sports Management. Note: Admission to this program is by invitation only.

Continuation in the Honors Program is contingent upon continuous enrollment, with no more than one full semester (15 weeks) between undergraduate and graduate degree programs. Upon a break in enrollment of more than one semester, students will be dropped from the program and will have to complete all credit requirements in the standard MBA or MSM program.

Program Competencies

Upon graduation, students will meet the graduation competencies of their selected undergraduate and graduate majors.

Program of Study

With a total requirement of 150 credits, the Honors Program follows existing undergraduate and graduate core requirements. The program requires completion of the University's current general education requirements and College of Business Core. The specific Program Core remains the same except that nine (9) business and free elective credits are replaced with an internship and two graduate courses: MGT 6501, Organization Theory and Design and MGT 6503, Leadership Development and Change Management. These six (6) credits are used to complete the undergraduate requirements. The remaining 30 credits are used to complete the graduate requirements. All graduate concentrations are available. See the MBA and MSM degree descriptions above. Other than the requirements for MGT 6501 and MGT 6503, which have been taken as part of the undergraduate program, all other degree requirements apply.

C E V

We believe that excellent educators must also be learners, sharing challenging ideas and successful practices with their colleagues. Through mutual support and interaction with parents and community, our graduates will provide a classroom and school climate that supports social development, stimulates intellectual growth, and encourages creativity.

We envision our students, as they take their places as educators, to be “Professional Partners, Creating Environments for Learning.”

M

The College of Education at Wilmington University prepares students for a professional career in working with children in the stages from birth through adolescence. Students have experiences that provide knowledge, theory and opportunities for educator candidates to work with children from a variety of socioeconomic backgrounds, ethnic groups, and education settings. Translating theory into practice is the primary purpose of the professional education programs. The programs center on the understanding of the structure and sequence of the content taught, the characteristics of the student population being taught, and the application of basic principles of learning that reoccur in the research on effective teaching.

C F

Our Conceptual Framework emanates from the vision and mission statements of the University and the College of Education; reflects the College’s philosophy, purposes, and goals; and is composed of specific Program Attributes that we deem essential for the effectiveness of educator preparation programs. By being structured around the Program Attributes, every preparation program in the College of Education directly reflects the Conceptual Framework.

This document can be found on the Wilmington University website in its entirety.

The College of Education is fully accredited by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE).

NOTE: The College of Education at Wilmington University reserves the right to change requirements to comply with any licensure/certification mandates by the Delaware Professional Standards Board and/or the Delaware State Department of Education, and/or via State of Delaware legislation.

Admission

Please refer to “The Graduate Admissions Process” section for general graduate admission information. For consideration and admission to the Doctor of Education program, applicants must satisfactorily complete credential screening and a committee interview, including a written component. All applicants must also submit the following:

1. Completed graduate (Ed.D.) application accompanied by a non-refundable application fee.
2. Official transcripts from an accredited college or university verifying completion of a bachelor's and master's degree. Send official transcript(s) directly to Wilmington University Graduate Admissions Office from the identified college or university.
3. Three statements of recommendation.
4. Written statement of professional and academic interest and intent.
5. Resumé
6. International students only: the results of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL).

All of the above documents should be sent directly to the Graduate Admissions Office.

Purpose

The doctoral program facilitates the professional development of teachers, specialists, administrators, and other personnel

The third feature of the program is an applied research component consisting of three courses and the dissertation/capstone project that serves as a culminating activity for all previously completed courses and the field components. - 2.

and national agendas. For some teachers, ICT is a specific content area responsibility, and most teachers use some forms of ICT every day in their classrooms. The increased presence of ICT in the schools has created educational opportunities and challenges unknown just a few years ago. Consequently, several critical needs have emerged:

1. A need for teachers to develop and maintain high levels of ICT-competence, including an awareness of emerging trends and technical innovations;
2. A need for teachers to know how to use ICT to help improve communication, improve student learning, solve problems, and make data-driven decisions;
3. A need for teachers to know how to integrate ICT into all curricular areas; and
4. A need for teachers to understand ICT's influence on the learning environment and on teacher/student roles.

The Master of Education: Applied Technology in Education program addresses the above needs by fostering an application-level of practical expertise at an intermediate level of experience.

The technology courses included in the program are based upon the National Standards for Technology in Teacher Preparation issued by the International Society for Technology in Education.

5. Results from the Test of English as Foreign Language (TOEFL) for international students.

Program Purpose

The purpose of the Master of Education in Career and Technical Education program is to provide professional development and certification opportunities for teachers who wish to pursue professional development, Delaware C&T certification, and/or a master's degree. Courses in the program will provide Career and Technical teachers with the necessary skills to be successful in the classroom. Students will learn methods to successfully communicate the content and skills of their subject area as well as to develop effective teaching strategies to ensure that students are receiving the best instruction possible while increasing student achievement.

* Note: The Delaware Department of Education changed the name of this certificate to: Skilled and Technical Sciences Teacher.

Program Competencies

It is intended that students enrolled in the Master of Education in Career and Technical Education program will achieve the following competencies:

1. Create learning experiences that make content meaningful to students and reflect an understanding of the core concepts and structure of education.

2. Provide learning opportunities that support the intellectual, social, emotional, and physical development of students based on an understanding of adolescent development and learning.
3. Adapt instruction for diverse learners based on an understanding of how students differ.
4. Demonstrate proficiency in oral and written communication.
5. Create a learning environment that fosters active engagement, self-motivation, and positive interaction by understanding individual and group behavior.
6. Design instruction based upon knowledge of the disciplines, students, the community, and Delaware's content standards to demonstrate knowledge of instructional planning.
7. Apply a variety of instructional approaches that promote student thinking, understanding, and application of knowledge.
8. Use multiple assessment strategies for the continuous development of students.
9. Pursue opportunities to improve teaching and thereby enhance professional growth.
10. Collaborate with colleagues, parents/guardians, and members of the business community to support student learning and well-being and demonstrate knowledge of the role of the school in the community.
11. Use educational technology as an instructional and management tool.
12. Understand and maintain standards of professional conduct guided by legal and ethical principles.
13. Exhibit enthusiasm, vigor, strength of inner self, humor, fairness, and concern for students.
14. Obtain and retain successful employment in the profession of education.

PRAXIS I Requirements

Career and Technical Master of Education degree students must pass all 3 sections of Praxis I (Reading, Writing and Math) prior to taking the Clinical Component (MCT 6420) and prior to completing the necessary requirements for the degree.

There are eight courses under Option A that are requirements for Delaware certification which are applicable toward the master's degree. A teacher who has already earned undergraduate credit for any of the required certification courses should select courses under Option B or Option C to complete the master's degree. Courses listed as MCT cannot be duplicated at the graduate level if already taken at the undergraduate level. These are dual listed courses and will have additional and differentiated assignments.

Outcomes Assessment

The assessment of outcomes consists of multiple measures. Grades on assignments and for courses are the first level of assessment. The course goals, learning outcomes, and assignments are designed to address the measurement of program and graduation competencies. The Knowledge of Reading Test (KRT) must be taken online at the time of enrollment and during either MRD 7920, Practicum in Reading, or MRD 7950, Seminar in Reading Research. Other assessment measures include the observation of application of knowledge in practical settings and alumni surveys that query such items as preparation levels for careers, preparation for passage of PRAXIS II, and life-long learning activities.

Program Design

The Master of Education in Reading program was designed to meet four sets of professional standards: Delaware Professional Teaching Standards (DPTS), National Association of is program is designed to serve students with several career opportunities:

- 15 or 18 course credits for a cluster of graduate study in reading
- 35 credits required for the master's degree. Subsequently, students may apply for the Reading Specialist certificate through the Department of Education. Documentation of a passing Praxis II score (560) will also be required.

Program Requirements

A current valid teaching certificate is required for admission to this program.

Completion of the degree includes successful completion of core courses, clinical courses, and a research course. Fifteen (15) semester credits of core courses in language, literacy, content area reading, literature and non-fiction materials for children and adolescents, and measurement, accountability and student learning are required. The required clinical sequence includes twenty (20) semester credits with a minimum of 289 clock hours of practice. All of the core courses require some collaboration and practice in schools. The research seminar is three (3) semester hours and includes analyses of research and conducting research. All MRD courses require interaction with children and/or teachers and paraprofessionals at multiple grade levels.

The clinical component requires students to arrange for time to be spent in elementary and secondary schools. Case studies of individuals and groups, analyses of classrooms of students, instructional planning and delivery for individuals, groups, and classrooms are all requirements. In addition, time must be arranged to work with other teachers at the elementary and secondary levels, specialists, parents, and community organizations. Experience serving as a resource person to other professionals in middle and secondary schools is required.

A research project is required. This research project may be qualitative or quantitative and designed for a classroom, school, or on a district level. Research is also conducted with the children participating in the reading clinics, and may be assigned by the course instructor to meet the requirements of this course.

An electronic portfolio is required for all students beginning the program in fall 2009.

Qualifications for a Degree

To qualify for a Master of Education in Reading, a student must complete all courses: core and clinical, for a total of 35 semester credits. The Knowledge of Reading Test (KRT), which assesses knowledge of basic reading skills, strategies and materials, must be taken online at the beginning of their program and during either MRD 7920, Practicum In Reading, or MRD 7950, Seminar in Reading Research. The PRAXIS II Reading Specialist test (0300) must also be taken and passed using State of Delaware passing criteria (560) prior to graduation. A cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 must be maintained throughout the program. The program must be completed within five years.

All of the documents indicated above should be sent to the Office of Graduate Admissions.

Program Purpose

The Master of Arts in Secondary Teaching program prepares teachers to meet the academic and social needs of students.

The program is built on a model of the teacher as learner, researcher, and facilitator of knowledge. The program is based

Outcomes Assessment

The assessment of outcomes consists of multiple measures. Grades on assignments and for courses are the first level of assessment. The course goals, learning outcomes, and assignments are designed to address measurement of the program competencies as well as the graduation competencies. Other assessment measures include observation of the application of knowledge in practical settings and alumni surveys that query such items as preparation levels for careers and life-long learning activities.

Program Design

The Master of Arts in Teaching Program is designed for individuals with bachelor's and/or master's degrees in major content areas taught in the middle level and high schools in our region. The program provides individuals with the professional preparation necessary for licensure and certification as "Highly-Qualified" teachers in the content area(s) of their previous degrees.

To be eligible for the program, a teacher candidate must hold a degree in a secondary content area from a regionally-accredited college or university. At entry, previous transcripts of teacher candidates will be carefully reviewed to determine if they have completed the content area coursework that satisfies national standards. Any omissions in such coursework must be completed before student teaching. Also prior to MAS 7801, Practicum/Pedagogical Approaches to Teaching in the Middle and High School, the teacher candidate must pass all sections of PRAXIS: Math, Reading, and Writing (or relevant exemption test) and the appropriate PRAXIS II 9-12 high school level content area test(s). Additional content area coursework may be necessary for teacher candidates who have not met content requirements and have not been initially successful in completing the PRAXIS II test(s).

As is the current master's degree in Elementary Education (for elementary teachers), the MAT program is an attractive route into middle level and high school teaching for individuals coming into the field from other professions. In a relatively short period of time (1 1/2 to 2 years), the program will prepare teacher candidates to teach students at the middle and high school level using the candidate's previously acquired content major. When they complete the program, successful teacher candidates will enter or move forward in the teaching to encourage teacher candidates to interact with exceptional students and students from different socioeconomic, gender, racial, language, geographic and ethnic groups.

A second area of importance for teacher candidates is the realization that they work with students, families, and communities in ways that reflect the dispositions expected of teachers as delineated in professional, state, and institutional standards. MAT teacher candidates must recognize, develop, and model dispositions that are expected of professional educators.

In order to assess a teacher candidate's initial dispositions and multicultural values, the College of Education administers inventories - "Inventory of Beginning Teacher's Dispositions Survey," and "Multicultural Inventory- during clinical courses in the program.

Because of the importance accorded to these surveys, teacher candidates are expected to participate fully and to comply with these tasks as assigned.

Program Design

Courses have been designed in accord with the standards of the Council for Standards in Human Service Education. The core of the program is anchored in the identified disciplines of research, theory, and ethics with a balance of professional practice that gives the program a real world flavor. This core will provide the student with the academic quality and rigor required as a base from which to build, according to individual interests and needs in a specific area of human services. Elective course offerings provide the students with the flexibility to choose from topics that will best prepare them to meet their own goals and aspirations. Faculty provides individual attention which gives each student the opportunity to design a personal plan of study within the program. Courses have been carefully selected and designed in consultation with human services professionals and practitioners to ensure that the most current issues and topics are included in the curriculum. The faculty is carefully recruited from the field to ensure that the class presentations are as current as the events in the profession that day.

Additionally, the program has a built-in flexibility that respects the professional and personal commitments and responsibilities that today's learners have while pursuing their goal of advanced academic studies. Classes are presented in semester-long, seven-week blocks and weekend modular offerings to conveniently fit the busy schedules of the students. It is anticipated that students, taking courses year-round, could complete the degree in 12 months at an accelerated rate or in 18 to 24 months following a more traditional schedule. Students will build a personalized schedule in consultation with their individual faculty advisor. The personalized guided practicum or individual capstone project allows the student additional flexibility and choices.

Program Competencies

1. Integrate theories, knowledge, skills and values of human services into the operation of human service organizations in a manner that demonstrates flexible thinking.
2. Demonstrate advanced written and oral communication skills.
3. Apply decision-making and problem-solving skills as well as critical thinking to the administration of the human services organization.
4. Demonstrate a knowledge and understanding of the structure and dynamics of teams, organizations and communities in diverse environments in a pluralistic society that reflects respect for our multicultural world.

5. Demonstrate the ability to design, implement, evaluate, assess and research the needs of human services communities and organizations (Bd1sbasB0710207eDsm)nb)san ser177nd organization(0 professional practitioners in the field and weaves the themes of scholarship, professional experience, ethics, and technology into the courses to meet the goals and objectives of the program.

Program Design

The Master of Science in Administration of Justice is designed to meet the educational needs of emerging managers and scholars who will be challenged by the many complex issues in criminal justice and private sector settings in the future. Emphasis is placed on producing scholarly practitioners who have the theoretical, operational, and practical educational foundation to be successful in their professional fields. The concentrations in “Leadership and Administration” and “Criminal Behavior” provide the opportunity for specialized studies. There is also a more general approach for those with other interests.

Additionally, the program has a built-in flexibility that respects the professional and personal commitments and responsibilities that today’s learners have while pursuing their goal of advanced academic studies. Classes are presented in semester-long, seven-week blocks and weekend modular offerings, as well as Distance Tutorials to conveniently fit the busy schedules of the students. The program is designed to be completed in two years of continuous study but may be accelerated by some students. Students will build a personalized schedule in consultation with their individual faculty advisor.

Program Competencies

1. Exercise critical thinking strategies, including reasoning, problem solving, analysis, and evaluation and apply them to defined criminal justice issues.
2. Demonstrate flexible thinking while maintaining a results-oriented outlook.

3. Develop advanced written and verbal communication skills.
4. Incorporate the use of technology and computer-based research in a variety of applications that are necessary for modern criminal justice practitioners.
5. Recognize the relationships between the theoretical and practical approaches to the study of criminal justice that are associated with the explanations of crime and criminal behavior.
6. Foster an environment that encourages students to actively engage in research and critically evaluate, synthesize, and analyze information that is necessary in the decision making process.
7. Design and interpret research in criminal justice.
8. Develop an understanding of the professional, ethical, social, and legal issues that challenge the criminal justice system.
9. Respond to a rigorous, challenging, and comprehensive curriculum that will deliver the learning experiences necessary to prepare participants to succeed as scholarly practitioners in their chosen endeavor.
10. Demonstrate a commitment to self-directedness, self-discipline, and lifelong learning in the field of criminal justice.
11. Recognize how personal choices, attitudes, behaviors, and the ability to work in teams affect self and others in a professional environment.
12. Apply the principles associated with a pluralistic society to increase respect for our multicultural society in the administration of justice.

Program Requirements

The Master of Science in Administration of Justice requires 36 credit hours. All students must satisfactorily complete five core courses in residence. A total of four courses may be chosen from an area of specialized concentration. The remaining three courses are taken as electives from any of the courses offered in the program which may include up to three courses from the Distance Tutorial format. Students who do not declare a specialization will take a total of seven electives from any of the courses offered in the Master of Science in Administration of Justice program.

NOTE: A master’s thesis is not required; however, students who plan to continue studies in a doctoral program are encouraged to write a master’s thesis, which is offered as a three-credit elective. Thesis supervision will be arranged through individual application to the Program Coordinator. Quantitative Applications in Criminal Justice (MAJ 6632) is a prerequisite to Thesis Supervision (MAJ 6900).

Course Requirements

The Master of Science in Administration of Justice is intended to provide students with the academic capital needed for successful careers in teaching and research. The degree also provides a sound foundation for entry into other professional endeavors and/or the opportunity to meet an intellectual interest in this very challenging field of study.

Core Courses

All students must satisfactorily complete the following core courses:

- MAJ 6600 Criminological Theory
- MAJ 6602 Criminal Justice Ethics
- MAJ 6603 Managing Diversity
- MAJ 6604 Technology and Modern Policing
- MAJ 6633 Research Methods in Criminal Justice

Electives

Select seven courses from any of the courses offered in the program (up to three may be Distance Tutorial [DT] format).

Leadership and Administration Concentration

This concentration focuses primarily upon the identified leadership and administrative skills that are necessary for the successful criminal justice practitioner in today's challenging environment. Students will broaden their understanding of the management function and the administrative process as they relate to criminal justice organizations.

The counseling field is becoming more specialized and competitive. Increasingly, counselors are expected to be competent with a wide range of populations, problem areas, and treatment methods. There is an increasing demand for advanced training. This certificate of Advanced Studies in Mental Health Counseling meets a need in professional training for the post-master's-level professional who wants to develop a specialty in mental health counseling practice. You may obtain a Graduate Certificate Program Form from the Registration Book or by downloading it from the Wilmington University Registrar's webpage.

Program Purpose

The express purpose of Wilmington University's Master of Science program in Information Systems Technologies is to satisfy workplace needs for talented employees with advanced knowledge about managing information systems. Students completing the program will better understand the relationship between business requirements and technology solutions with an emphasis on applying a systems approach when integrating information technology into strategic business/education/government activities. Moreover, to capitalize on the interdisciplinary nature of modern information systems and the settings in which they are implemented, the MS-IST includes four career concentrations.

Program Competencies

The graduate student who successfully completes the Information Systems Technologies program will be expected to:

I. Oral Communication

- Speak with confidence, clarity, and conciseness.
- Research, prepare, and deliver professional presentations.

Written Communication

- Write clearly, concisely and appropriately using correct English grammar, punctuation, usage, mechanics, sentence structure, and vocabulary.
- Utilize appropriate APA format for scholarly writings.

II. Disciplined Inquiry

- Utilize quantitative, qualitative and scientific reasoning to solve problems.
- Exercise critical thinking strategies, including reasoning, problem solving, analysis and evaluation.
- Define a problem or issue and develop questions and methods to address the problem or issue and/or to create new knowledge.

III. Information Literacy

- Access and use information effectively, efficiently, and appropriately.
- Evaluate the quality of sources and content.
- Use technology to effectively locate and communicate information.

IV. Ethics

- Demonstrate knowledge and application of prescribed ethical code(s) and/or behaviors promoted by the profession.

V. Integration Component

- Identify systemic interrelationships.
- Apply a Systems Thinking Approach to identify benefits, disadvantages, and synergies of an Information System.

VI. Business Application

- Synthesize creative solutions recognizing the interdependence of various components in an organizational system.
- Demonstrate the ability to apply various models concerning planning, organizing, controlling, and actuating an informational environment within a modern organization.

MS-IST Program Requirements

The 36-credit MS-IST program is designed around a set of five building blocks. The courses in the IS Foundations and Business Foundations blocks are prerequisites for the program. Students with inadequate backgrounds in these areas are required to take additional courses and will, therefore, require additional credits to complete their degrees. The IS Core block defines the minimal knowledge required of all MS-IST students. This knowledge is both technical and managerial in flavor. The core represents a standard that defines the MS-IST program and differentiates it from traditional computer science programs. The five building blocks are:

- IS Foundations;
- Business Foundations;
- IS Core;
- Integration;
- Concentration/Career Tracks.

Information Systems Foundations and Business Foundations Courses (MS-IST Prerequisites)

A minimum foundation of essential prerequisite knowledge is needed for the MS-IST program. The following table lists the courses that are required for the MS-IST program.

C

A concentration/career track consists of five or more related electives that prepare a student for a specialization. Tracks are, by definition and implementation, multidisciplinary, often involving courses in a college other than the College of Technology. For example, the Training Skills specialization in an academic track may be taken in the College of Education and in the College of Business.

Information Assurance Concentration/Career Track:

Five courses from the following list of possible options must be completed in order to satisfy the concentration.

MAJ 6610	White Collar Crime
MAJ 7000	Contemporary Issues in Homeland Security
SEC 6010	Planning for Information Security
SEC 6020	Security Issues Concerning RFID Technology Applications
SEC 6030	Operating System and Computer Systems Security
SEC 6040	Web and Data Security
SEC 6090	Topics in Information Assurance

Management and Management Information Systems Concentration/Career Track:

Five courses from the following list of possible options must be completed in order to satisfy the concentration.

MBA 7594	Creativity in Management
MGT 6501	Organization Theory and Design
MGT 7400	Analysis of Decision Making
MGT 7504	Ethical Issues in Management
MGT 7591	Leadership and Communication
MGT 7710	Integrative Independent Study Project A
MGT 7900	Topics in Management
MHR 7830	Finance and Accounting for Managers

Corporate Training Skills Concentration/Career Track:

Five courses from the following list of possible options must be completed in order to satisfy the concentration. (Note: EDT pre-requisite sequencing is to be observed).

EDT 6010	Instructional Applications of Technology
EDT 6020	Emerging Trends
EDT 6030	Electronic Delivery Systems
MGT 7395	Management Development
MHR 7506	Training and Development
MHR 7900	Special Topics (or EDT 6040)
MSE 7404	Assistive Technology

Internet/Web Design Concentration/Career Track:

Five courses from the following list of possible options must be completed in order to satisfy the concentration.

DSN 6010	Streaming Media
DSN 6020	Human Computer Interaction
DSN 6030	Advanced Multimedia and Animation
DSN 6050	Markup Languages Advanced Authoring
DSN 6060	Database/Web Design Integration
DSN 6080	Internet Development/Design for Competitive Advantage
DSN 6090	Topics in Internet/Web Design

Supervised Field Experience/Internship

Students in the final year of the program who have completed the majority of the program requirements will be required to enroll in a three-credit hour supervised field experience/internship. Students must have completed IST 8100 or be simultaneously enrolled in that course before registering for IST 8101.

There are three possible options for students at this juncture in the program:

- The first option provides students following the Internet/Web Design Concentration/Career Track

For students with no advanced preparation, a program of up to 54 credits may be required:

- 9 credits of IS foundations;
- 9 credits of business foundations;
- 15 credits of core courses;
- 3 credits of integration;
- 15 credits of career track;
- 3 credits of Field Experience/Internship.

Qualifications for Degree

To qualify for the Master of Science degree in Information Systems Technologies, a student must successfully complete a minimum of 36 credit hours (12 courses), including an Integration Capstone Component and a Field Experience/Internship. Both are intended to enhance a student's occupational interest through the correlation of theory and practice. Students must maintain a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0.

AHS 6600 3 credits
Survey of Human Services

This course reviews the historical foundations and development of human services and provides the context for how different human services emerged. The course will explore the various political, legislative and social influences on the development of human services.

AHS 6610 3 credits
Administration of Human Service Organizations

This course will provide basic knowledge, theory and skills in the administrative aspects of the human service delivery system. Issues of supervision, management and development of paid and volunteer staff will be addressed. Fiscal administration, including the creation of budgets, grant and contract negotiations and implementation of fiscal controls will be discussed. The concepts of coalition building, legislative advocacy and community organizing will also be introduced.

The relationship between administrator and board of directors in a non-profit setting will also be reviewed.

AHS 6620 3 credits
Legal and Ethical Issues in Human Service Administration

This course will explore the legal/regulatory framework in which human service organizations exist. The concept of risk management in a non-corporate setting will be introduced.

The state and federal laws which regulate client services and employment will be reviewed, including the Americans with Disabilities Act, and the legal prohibitions against gender, race and age discrimination. Students will be introduced to the ethical standards of the National Organization for Human Services and will develop an understanding of human services ethics and their application in practice.

AHS 6630 3 credits
Research, Design and Evaluation of Programs in Human Services

This course will focus on the analysis of human service needs and the selection and development of appropriate organizational programming. Students will be introduced to the principles of program design, implementation and evaluation.

Streaming Media

Changes in information technology now permit “streaming” to new audiences or existing audiences in new ways. This course aims to help students understand the creative processes involved in producing a streaming media project. Creating streaming media is a multi-step effort, including shooting, capturing, editing and encoding source material—audio, video or both—with involved decision-making along the way. Working with existing video footage, students will edit using a nonlinear editing tool (Final Cut Pro), add effects and deliver the source content in multiple versions of encoding formats and data rates for successfully streamed compression.

Experiential Learning: Leadership Issues

This course is experiential in nature and focuses on leadership and group process. Students will acquire and apply knowledge, skills, and feelings in an immediate and relevant setting. Topics include: examining core values in the leadership process, group problem solving, leadership styles, decision-making, power and influence, conflict management, ethical dilemmas, and community building. The outcome of the course will include an initial plan for the internship.

EDD 7100

Using basic principles of organizational behavior, this course explores how context matters to the sites engaged in change by investigating an organization—its history, culture, and particular factors that influence how it operates when engaged in systematic reform or improvement efforts.

EDD 7300 3 credits
Policy Systems/Analysis, Evaluation, and Implementation

Leaders operate in a complex web of political relationships within organizations, between organizations and their communities, and across levels of government. This course is designed to aid leaders in becoming more effective actors within this web of political relationships. It draws its intellectual base from research and theory in political science and public policy with application through case study and student projects.

EDD 7301 3 credits
Finance, Resource Development and Implementation

Finance functions, including development of budgets, purchasing, accounting, insurance, transportation and current problems in handling the business office are examined in this course. Building design, construction, maintenance, life-cycle costing, and finance will also be covered.

EDD 7402 3 credits
Problem-Centered Research I

This course will prepare students to analyze data and draw meaningful conclusions while recognizing the limitations of the data and the procedures employed. Students will explore the nuances of various inquiry methods, especially those most useful in action research settings. The catalyst of these examinations will be each student's proposed problem, with this course focusing on refining inquiry questions and exploring ways of addressing the problem that will lead to their capstone doctoral learning experience. Students in the Educational Leadership concentration will only take EDD 7402. EDD 7402 is a prerequisite for EDD 7403 for students in the Organizational Leadership Concentration.

EDD 7403 3 credits
Problem-Centered Research II

This course is the second of two courses designed to prepare students to analyze data and draw meaningful conclusions while recognizing the limitations of the data and the procedures employed. The course will explore what sound research means and how design choices influence the validity/credibility of research findings and conclusions. Students will continue to develop their proposal/design framework and will receive on-going assistance in developing their research proposals.

EDD 8102 3 credits
Leadership Practicum

The purpose of this practicum is to provide students with problem-based experiences regarding the major tasks and activities of leadership.

EDD 8103 3 credits
Internship

The purpose of this faculty/student-planned extensive field experience is to have students engage in meaningful learning experiences that complement their program coursework and provide a broad application overview of the work of a senior-level leader.

EDD 8104 3 credits
Field Experience and Portfolio Assessment

The purpose of this field experience is to complete and finalize the professional portfolio with examples of work from leadership assessment, career development field experience, and coursework as related to each of the standards.

EDD 9000-9004 9 credits
Dissertation Project

This course involves extensive work by the student with advisement from a faculty member. A pre-arranged plan of the project must be completed and be reviewed and approved by the student's advisor and one other committee member. This work may involve extensive on-going research/writing by the student on a research project or in topic inquiry with advising from one or more faculty members (100 percent of class).

MAJ 6605

MAJ 6612 3 credits Drugs and Society Analysis and definition of drugs of abuse and their effect on society are presented in this course. Both the legal aspects and the social costs will be factored into the discussion. Controversial issues, including legalization and foreign relations, will be discussed. State and federal laws will be examined in light of other available options. Major offenders, including gangs and cartels, as well as current trends, strategies, and policies will be presented.	MAJ 6618 3 credits Contemporary Issues in Corrections This course will explore the current and controversial issues impacting modern corrections. Discussions will focus on the shifting philosophies and ideologies in the field and the practical effect these changes have on the effectiveness and efficiency of correctional policies and day-to-day operations. Complex case studies will be utilized to allow the student to act as policy maker and decision maker in real life correctional scenarios.
MAJ 6613 3 credits Mental Health and the Law The purpose of this course is to acquaint the criminal justice practitioner with the mental health field and the interaction between the two. Psychological evaluations, testing issues, insanity defense, forensic psychiatry, expert testimony, and the role of the mental health professional in criminal justice issues are included as discussion topics. Case studies and current issues will be presented in a seminar format.	MAJ 6619 3 credits Forensic Behavior Analysis This course will examine the behaviors that are exhibited by criminals based upon an analysis of critical behavioral markers. Behavior will be reviewed from a variety of perspectives, including criminological, psychological, and physiological. Crime scene analysis will be discussed as a source of profiling criminal behavior, and the use of the polygraph will be explored as an attempt to examine diagnostic tools to predict and explain deviance and criminal behavior.
MAJ 6614 3 credits Addiction Studies This course will review the addictive behaviors that professionals in the criminal justice system encounter on a regular basis. Substance and behavioral addictions will be reviewed in the context of victims and offenders. A variety of treatment protocols will be discussed to equip the criminal justice professional with the background to deal effectively with these criminal issues.	MAJ 6620 3 credits Criminal Justice System: Policy and Process This course presents a comprehensive overview of the criminal justice system in the United States. It will address issues, procedures, policies, and problems characteristically associated with the practicalities of law enforcement, the judiciary, corrections, and juvenile justice. The course will cover the philosophy and politics of policing, sentencing guidelines, contemporary issues in probation and parole, current debates in corrections associated with reform and alternative forms of punishment, and unique issues confronting the juvenile justice system. Quantitative Applications in Criminal Justice

This course employs both the methodological and analytical skills necessary for the analysis of issues related to criminal justice research. Students will learn the techniques of management of quantitative data and explore more advanced methods of analysis. The construction and use of questionnaires, testing of hypotheses, and answering of research questions through the use of quantitative data will be presented.

MAJ 6633 3 credits

Research Methods in Criminal Justice

Students will learn the scientific methods used in the study of issues related to crime and criminal justice. Topics will include the relationship among theory, hypotheses, and empirical research. Various methodological designs, including survey research, quasi-experimental research, and qualitative research will be explored. The language and terminology used in the interpretation of data will be presented. Issues that govern the research of crime and criminal justice will be discussed, including ethics and confidentiality.

E-Folio

This course provides access to the electronic portfolio that is required for all students in the Master of Arts in Secondary Teaching program who began their coursework on or after September 1, 2008. This is a non-credit course and does not meet as a regular class. The course requires an initial fee which provides students with instructions and ensures their access to the electronic portfolio for a period of six years. Students must enroll in this course at the beginning of their programs because documents, assignments, and artifacts from other courses will be placed into the electronic portfolio.

Education of Diverse Populations and Exceptional Children in the Middle and High School

Students will learn about and apply concepts directly relating to the educational needs of all learners presented in the classroom. Assessment instruments used to identify eligibility for specialized instruction and/or related services and the use of evaluation data appropriate to the design and implementation of individualized educational programs (IEPs) will also be studied and applied to the professional and ethical responsibilities required of general education teachers in multi-cultural settings. Interventions for specific disabilities, as generated by evaluation data, will be created. Federal, state, and local legislation, regulations, policies, and procedures will be reviewed and analyzed as appropriate to the delivery of services to students with special needs. The social, emotional, and intellectual characteristics of gifted students will be examined, including an analysis of identification procedures and service delivery models. Pedagogy and resources that support IEP goals and objectives for gifted students will be presented. A research paper reviewing least restrictive environment (LRE) issues will be required, as will classroom observation in a special education resource and/or general education classroom.

Student Teaching/Internship

Students participate in a clinical immersion, which includes 60 full days of student teaching in a secondary school. A supervisor of student teaching from Wilmington University and a cooperating teacher in the school are identified to mentor and monitor each student teacher. Attention is given to placing students in schools/classrooms that reflect a diverse student population. A minimum of 15 clock hours is scheduled by the Wilmington University supervisors to address professional issues related to the clinical semester and to provide support and assistance with the completion of the required portfolio. Prerequisites: Approved application from the Office of Clinical Studies

School and Community: Building a Shared Vision

This course explores two areas of school leadership that are essential for improving student achievement: (a) developing a vision of teaching and learning that is shared by all stakeholders, and (b) school-community relationships. The course examines ways to develop, communicate, implement, and monitor/evaluate a shared vision; and examines the importance of understanding and responding to community needs, valuing diversity, striving for equal educational opportunity and equity, and improving the quality and nature of school/community interactions. Students will assess, reflect on, and improve their own interpersonal skills; explore basic principles of effective communications and public relations; and apply those skills and principles in authentic settings. The course emphasizes the school leader's role in developing and maintaining sensitive, ethical, and open communications with and among all individuals, communities, and constituencies served by the school.

Methods of Teaching English as a Second Language (Grades 6-12)

NOTE: This course is ONLY for those students who have already taken MLL 7404.*

During this course, current and past methodologies for teaching limited English-proficient students at the secondary level will be thoroughly introduced and analyzed. Students will determine which strategies are best for their particular teaching situations. As the course progresses, participants will reference the varying methodologies as well as the newly adopted English Language Proficiency Standards and the Delaware Content Standards to make their own instructional plans and units. Emphasis will be placed on incorporating a variety of teaching strategies and standards while stressing both content skills and language skills. Implications of the No Child Left Behind legislation as well as other federal and state laws governing the rights of English Language Learners will also be discussed. Twelve hours of classroom observations are a requirement of this course.

Structure of English Language in ELL

This course is designed for educators working with English Language Learners (ELL) in grades K-12. Participants in this course will examine the syntactical structure of the English language and its connections to other languages. Participants will gain knowledge of the ways in which ELL students acquire a syntactical understanding of the English Language in the domains of listening, speaking, reading and writing. An emphasis will be placed on the importance of adapting content area instruction and language for ELL students in order to promote academic language proficiency. This course assessing progress are studied. Specific instructional strategies for second language learners recommended by experts will be analyzed. Twelve hours of clinical observation and subsequent analysis of the teaching of reading/writing are required.

Teaching Literacy for ELLs

The relationship of literacy skill (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) development and the second language acquisition process is examined. Social and cultural language differences, second language acquisition, developmental stages, metacognitive theory, research-based theory, instructional implications, and practical classroom applications will be emphasized. The process by which the aforementioned factors elucidate and strengthen ELLs' second language literacy development is linked to instruction. Action research and study of an ELL's language and literacy development is required. Prerequisite: MLL 7402

Pre-Calculus for Certification

This course provides an integrated review of intermediate algebra, analytic geometry, and basic trigonometry in order to prepare the student for calculus. Appropriate topics in algebra are reviewed. The concept of "function" is stressed. Various classes of functions and their respective graphs and applications will be covered. Specifically, the course will cover linear, quadratic, polynomial, rational, exponential, logarithmic, and trigonometric functions. This course is designed to meet public school certification requirements in mathematics. Prerequisite: MAT 304 or college algebra equivalent

MMA 6200 3 credits
Finite Math for Certification

This course provides a survey of selected topics in mathematics with emphasis on problem solving and applications. Core topics include an introduction to logic, set theory, probability, systems of linear equations, and the mathematics of finance. Additional topics may include linear programming and statistics. This course is designed to meet public school certification requirements in mathematics. Prerequisite: MAT 304 or college algebra equivalent

Leadership Foundations

This course discusses various models of leadership applicable to organizations. Students will have the opportunity to examine their own leadership styles in the light of these models. The course will also encompass research, theories, and models of communication in organizations as they relate to effective leadership. Through their studies, students will be able to assess, understand, and improve their own approach to leading, as well as their ability to select and evaluate leaders.

MOL 6200 3 credits
Group Processes and Facilitation Skills

This course emphasizes the skills and capabilities required for leadership effectiveness at the levels of self, group, organization, and society. By experientially exploring the issues of the personal effectiveness dimension of leadership, students gain an appreciation of their leadership capabilities and opportunities for growth. This course also examines the maximization of communication effectiveness to overcome barriers to group formation and facilitation in the ultimate achievement of organizational goals.

Diagnosis and Correction of Reading Difficulties

Diagnosis and correction of literacy difficulties requires knowledge and expertise in the areas of growth and development, test administration, drawing diagnostic conclusions based upon data, background information and observation. Toward that end, the nature of reading problems and methods, techniques, and materials used in diagnosing and remediating reading-related difficulties are studied in detail. Attention is focused on the learner and interpretation of physiological, psychological, sociological, and educational factors which influence reading achievement. Provisions are made for the identification, analysis and interpretation of informal and formal measures of reading performance and MSE Option A courses, will add pre-k certification to the 1-8 certification in the State of Delaware.

MSE 7990 1 credit
Practicum in Special Education

MSE 7990 Practicum is a one-credit, supervised, structured, field-based, exploratory program that requires at least thirty-five (35) hours in an approved educational learning environment for individuals with exceptional learning needs (ELN). Fieldwork is supported by (21) hours of Practicum seminar sessions. Seminars are held weekly or monthly by faculty of the College of Education.

The MSE 7990 Practicum is intended to help teacher preparation candidates in the MSE program analyze and reflect on learning, teaching, and the school environment in relation to both the Council for Exceptional (CEC) Professional Standards and the Delaware Professional Teaching Standards (DPTS). The “capstone” experience for this Practicum is teaching a lesson in a learning environment for individuals with exceptional learning needs.

The MSE 7990 Practicum’s activities begin the process of helping the teacher preparation candidate understand and achieve College of Education Program Competencies. Practicum activities and expectations reflect the College of Education Conceptual Frameworks and are standards-driven.

The standards-based teacher preparation curriculum is linked directly to Delaware’s Professional Teaching Standards, the Council for Exceptional Children Professional Standards, and the four Domains of Professional Practice. Prerequisites: MSE 7401, valid TB clearance

MSE 8101 3 credits
Severe Disabilities

Students learn identification methods and teaching strategies for students with severe and multiple disabilities, including: autism, traumatic brain injury, deafness, blindness, orthopedic and other health impairments, and multiple handicaps.

The concepts of inclusion and non-categorical educational identification and teaching are emphasized. A clinical component of observation and analysis of severe disabilities is included.

MSE 8102 3 credits
Legislation and Implementation of Policy and Procedure

Pertinent legislation at federal and state levels is reviewed. Emphasis is on the implementation of mandates, policies, and procedures. The course includes interpretation of psychological and other special reports, preparation of the special education teacher for multidisciplinary team meetings (MDT’s) and meetings with parents and other professionals to develop the individualized education program (IEP). Prerequisite: MSE 7403

MSE 8103 3 credits
Supervision and Evaluation of Special Education Programs

Students study the relationship of research in special education to program development, administration, supervision, and evaluation. Administration of special education programs and how they interface with state, district, and school administration policies and procedures are a focus. Students are required to develop a written plan for a research-based special education program that includes personnel, methods, materials, staff development, relationship to other professionals, parent training, public relations, and budget. Prerequisites: MSE 7401, 7402, 7403, 7404, 7990, 8101, and 8102

MSE 8802 9 credits
Student Teaching in Special Education

Students participate in a supervised clinical experience for a minimum of 60 full days for nine credit hours. Each student is assigned both a cooperating teacher from a special education setting in a grade level from one through eight and a supervisor from Wilmington University. Prerequisites: MSE 7401, MSE 7402, MSE 7403, MSE 7404, MSE 8102, MSE 8103, and MSE 8101; GPA of 3.0; passing scores on PRAXIS I (Math, Reading, and Writing) and the appropriate PRAXIS II; and an approved application from the Office of Clinical Studies. Applications must be submitted by October 1 for spring placements or March 1 for fall placements. A criminal background check may be required.

Leadership Roles in Advanced Practice Nursing

As an introduction to graduate studies, this course seeks to re-orient the student to learning in an academic setting, communicating in the area of information literacy and

Examination of major philosophies illustrates the influences on nursing and health care. The development of concepts related to health care is examined with beginning experience in concept analysis. Models and theories that direct and guide practice are applied. The importance of research and its link to nursing science is addressed.

MSN 6603 3 credits

Advanced Physiology/Pathophysiology

This course focuses on advanced concepts of normal physiology of major body systems and highlights relationships among systems. Knowledge of normal physiology provides the student with a basis for interpreting health deviations. Variations from normal and pathophysiologic processes are presented.

MSN 6606 3 credits

Research in Nursing Practice

This course explores the interconnectedness of nursing theory, nursing research, and nursing practice. Concepts related to the philosophy of science and generation of knowledge are examined. Both qualitative and quantitative approaches to the research process are encouraged. Clinical projects designed to demonstrate the interrelationship of theory, research, and practice, and which relate to the area of health promotion, are addressed. An action plan is developed to serve as the application phase of the research process. Research utilization and dissemination in advanced practice are discussed. Ways to incorporate clinically-based research are investigated.

MSN 6607 3 credits

Evidence-Based Decision-Making in Nursing

This course emphasizes the application of data analysis to the every day decision-making expected of nurses practicing at advanced levels. Students are introduced to data analysis using commercial statistics software programs (administrative, educational, practice, etc) will be provided. The use of data to apply for, administer, and evaluate grants will also be addressed.

MSN 6641 3 credits

Philosophical Perspectives of Nursing Leadership

This course acquaints students with selected philosophies which have influenced health care, nursing, and clinical ethics. Understanding and debating the philosophical bases of health care support the development of one's personal philosophy of nursing leadership. Students explore their values, analyzing how personal and professional values shape professional practice, decision-making, and system development. Students consider the philosophical bases and utility of contemporary aspects of nursing practice, including holistic care, transcultural influences, and complementary therapies.

MSN 6645 3 credits

Bioethics in Nursing Practice

This course will introduce the student to bioethical concepts that impact upon nursing practice. Students will focus on ethical concepts as they apply to LNC and nursing practice. Conceptual, factual, and normative issues will be explored to provide the framework within which many arguments of biomedical ethics are formulated.

MSN 7000 1-2 credits

Independent Study in Nursing

Students may earn one or two credits through individualized projects with faculty guidance. Projects supplement selected aspects of the program, including research, clinical practice, or theory.

MSN 7310 3 credits

Legal Issues in Nursing Practice

This course provides an overview of the legal process and an introduction to the legal issues nurses face in their clinical practice. Case examples and case analysis methods discussed in class will provide nurses with information on risk management and patient advocacy strategies that positively impact health care delivery.

MSN 7320 3 credits

Practices in the Realm of Nursing and the Law

This course will introduce the student to the field of Legal Nurse Consulting as a specialty practice within nursing. Exploration of the roles nurses play in the legal field, introduction of legal concepts applicable to nursing practice, and analysis of medical-legal scenarios will provide the student with exposure to a variety of career options within the practice of Legal Nurse Consulting.

MSN 7330 3 credits

Entrepreneurship for Nurses

This course will familiarize students with the development of a business plan. Students will learn marketing concepts with relevance to marketing LNC services to attorneys, insurers, and facilities. Skills related to office management and billing will also be addressed. Issues related to professional presentation of self will be highlighted.

MSN 7340 3 credits

Practicum: Post Master's Legal Nurse Consultant

This course serves as a practicum for the post-master's legal nurse consultant student. The student will complete a minimum of 40 hours with a preceptor in the legal field in order to expand his/her expertise. Students work with an individual faculty member who will provide guidance.

MSN 7350 3 credits

Forensic Nursing: Clinical and Legal Implications

In this course, the student will examine the specialty of forensic nursing as it is implemented in health care delivery systems in the US and internationally. Theory and concepts related to forensic nursing practice will be explored, as well as the application of the nursing process as it relates to forensic nursing clients. The relationship among forensic nursing, the justice system, and community-based referral systems will be explored from the perspective of delivering comprehensive patient and victim-centered care utilizing a multidisciplinary team approach. Specific social issues will be addressed, including sexual assault, intimate partner violence, elder abuse, child abuse, and other human rights violations impacting the practice of forensic nursing, our communities at large and the utilization of health care resources.

MSN 7701 3 credits

Child Development and Assessment

This course focuses on advanced comprehensive physical, psychosocial, developmental, and cultural assessment of the child within the context of his/her family and community. Determination of the health status of children from infancy to adolescence through evaluation of a variety of data collection techniques is stressed. Analysis and interpretation of growth and development patterns are discussed as they relate to primary care. Practice sessions enable the student to refine history and physical assessment skills. Prerequisite: MSN 6603, MSN 7702

MSN 7702 3 credits

Advanced Adult Health Assessment

This course focuses on developing advanced health assessment skills appropriate for delivery of primary care to the adult client. The course will provide the student with necessary skills to advance beyond basic history and physical examination to using initial diagnostic reasoning skills. Assessment skills will be refined for the determination of the health status of young, middle, and older adults in the clinical laboratory setting. Students will broaden their ability to recognize abnormal findings within the context of the physical examination. Core concepts will be included regarding promotion of health
